The Gateway

VOL. LVI, No. 27, UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA, EDMONTON, ALBERTA

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1966, FOUR PAGES

Grad studies best area for aid

SHEILA BALLARD

Federal aid to universities is most appropriate in the area of graduate studies, says Hon. Ran-dolph H. McKinnon, minister of education.

People who obtain a single de-gree, said Mr. McKinnon, generally seek local employment, while those with post-graduate degrees tend to disperse throughout the country

There is no reason why the pro-vincial government should bear the total expense involved in educat-ing a student who may never use his education within the province, he said.

commenting on provincial atti-tudes toward federal involvement in post-secondary education, Mr. McKinnon told The Gateway Tuesday the province feels federal ald should be given but specific allotments should be kept at a minimum. minimum.

"Quebec has a phrase for thisfiscal equivalent. Quebec wants the money but doesn't want it designated," he said.

In Tuesday's Speech From The Throne, the Federal Government renewed its pledge to introduce a new program of university scholar-ships and make a "substantial in-crease" in federal aid to univer-sities in the 1966-67 academic year.

"While respecting fully the responsibilities of the provinces, the government is equally resolved to maintain constitutional responsibilities of the federal authority," it said it said.

There will probably be more federal-provincial conferences concerning aid to higher education, said Mr. McKinnon.

'I feel there is room for federal support at least at the level of the Bladen Commission recommendations,' he said.

Mr. McKinnon had no specific

Mr. McKinnon had no specific comment regarding proposed re-visions of the University Act. He add minority memorandums in the said minority memorandums in the full governmental consideration. Regarding membership of the proposed Universities Commission, Mr. McKinnon said the government would probably consult the boards of governors and general faculty councils before appointing mem-

The Governors' report suggests

The Governors' report suggests the nine-member commission be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor-In-Council.

Mr. McKinnon had no definite comment on the issue of faculty representation on the Board of the control o mended academic representation on administrative councils. Mr. McKinnon said he felt com-

Mr. McKinnon said he felt com-parisons frequently quoted between Proportions of student attending colleges in Canada and the United States often were not valid. Grade XII or XIII in Canada is often equivalent to the education offered in some American colleges, he said.

BUILT LIKE A BRICK SKONK WORKS—Who is the most desirable woman in the world? Daisy Mae Yokum of most ceastable woman in the world: Datsy Mae Yokum or course, and Janey Craig, nursing I, impersonates her in the Jubilaires Club production Li'l Abner. The musical adaptation of Al Capp's cartoon strip will be presented during YoW, Feb. 17-19. Tickets will go on sale at SUB and the Allied Arts Centre in the Bay as of Jan. 26.

Johns sees need for more federal aid to education

Education is no longer an exclusively provincial concern, says U of A president Dr. Walter H. Johns.

It is good to see the federal government assuming more responsibility in this area, he says.

Dr. Johns was commenting on Tuesday's Speech From The Throne which promised "a substantial increase" in federal aid to universities.

Education was really a local matter when the British North America Act was passed, but this is now out of date, says Dr. Johns.

is now out of date, says Dr. Johns. Universities were at that time supported by private funds but now the government monies are the "Graduate studies particularly should be a national concern", says Dr. Johns. He pointed out U of A vinces and many foreign countries. He says he would like to see the increase in federal aid go to specific areas of high cost such as grad of high cost such as grad of the properties of the processions of courses.

"Increased federal aid could help postpone or do away with the need for increased fees. But freezing or even abolition of fees is not important because fees represent very little of a student's total expense," he said. U of A students don't know what fees are. At Yale, for both of the country of the said of the country of the country

Money isn't actually that serious a problem for students who really a problem for students who really want to attend university, Dr. Johns said.

A total of $5,316,115 in scholar-ships, provincial and Canadian government loans was awarded to students in Alberta during the past year. Of this impressive total, about $3,765,000 went to university students.

Junior colleges play an important role in post-secondary education, said Dr. Johns.

"Junior colleges radiate their in-

"Junior colleges radiate their in-filuence over the area within com-muting distance," he said. "Physial access to higher education is just as important as financial." Stu-dents who often would not go on to further education start at the college level, then go on to uni-versity for their senior years, he

Socreds merge with PCs

By TONY DEARNESS

CALGARY (Special) -Campus Progressive Conservatives and Social Crediters have merged here in what was felt to be a milestone in Canadian politics.

The new party will be led by Bob Ustace under the PC banner in the upcoming Model Parliament Feb. 24-26.

Speaking of the union, Ustace said the policies and views of both parties coincided to such a degree that it was felt an amalgamation was the only logical line to follow.

was the only logical line to follow.

"Although in some quarters of the provincial Social Credit party such a move may be regarded with disfavor, I cannot help but feel that this will be seen as a benefit and a necessity for consolidating small
'c' conservative thought in Canada," he said.

ada," he said.

Conservatives' president Tony Dearness said the merger "will make us an unmistakeably strong contender for model parliament.

"We have a good leader, excellent policy and an enthusiastic organization and are all ready to organization and accompany of the new party, Peter Woolstencroft, said "in previous years the right has been divided among two or three parties. "Through the amalgamation we have overcome this difficulty in the company of the province of the province of the parties."

nave overcome this difficulty in our campaign.

"We intend to reach all the conservative elements on campus and I am confident that we shall be successful in forming the government."

Quebec students on strike

MONTREAL (CUP)-More than 27,000 Quebec students have gone on strike to protest a three-week extension of the school term which would cut down students have gone on strike to prouse a trice-extension of the school term which would cut down extension of the school term which would cut down extension of the school term which would cut down the strike began Monday after a series of strike votes at 60 technical and specialized schools across the province were held when Education Minister Paul Gerin-Lajoie refused to repeal the extension. Michel Delorine, president of the Quebec Specialized Students Federation, FEES-Q, said that the votes of the Students Pederation, FEES-Q, said that the votes only one school, Granby, turned it down. Students picketed schools while policement sood by, but no students crossed the picket lines and nonicidents were reported.

After a let a sid his department would not back down and issued an appeal to "all parents who have the responsibility to look after the education of their children," to prevent the strike.

Gerin-Lajoie said the students did not need to carm money since tultion is free, so extrike are at earn money since tuition is free.

About one-third of the students on strike are at the post-secondary level. Many students pay room and board if there is no specialized school near their

He said the three-week extension would put technical students on the labor market at the same time as high-school sutdents, making it more difficult to get summer jobs. Gerin-Lajoie offered to set up a study of the students' financial situation, but the federation refused to take part until the extension was abolished.

"The students find it strange, to say the least, that the minister should first take actions and afterwards create committees to study their consequences, Delorme said.

Deforme said.

After a meeting Monday with Premier Lesage, Delorme said the premier was "understanding" and Gerin-Lajoie immediately.

The 80,000 Union Generale Des. Etudiants Du Quebee, representing most of those on strike, plans a mass demonstration Friday in Montreal if the issue is not settled by then.

predicting continued cold weath today, with sunny skies, winds westerly at 10 m.p.h. and a high today of -20 degrees.

Low tonight and high Thursday are -30 degrees and -25.

The Gateway

Winner N. A. M. MacKenzie trophy for excellence in features 1965-66. Winner Montreal Star trophy for excellence in news photography 1965-66. Second in Bracken trophy competition for editorial writing 1965-66 and third in Southam trophy competition for general excellence 1965-66.

Editor-in-Chief - - - - Don Sellar

Managing Editor ..... Bill Miller

Associate Editor ... Doug Walker

News Editor District Page 1 Browling Page Five Linds Strond Fast News Editor Lead From Complete Linds Strond Fast News Editor Lead From Complete Linds From Linds Fr

youer filety, herivey hamight,

The Gattewey in published doily this week by the students' union of the University of Alberta. The Editor,

In Carle is reportable for all material published berein. Final copy deadline (including short short feets)

or Webnespee Selform—J. pub., and the state of the stat

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19, 1966

an incredible debate

A cowed Students' Council has been told by the university's chief disciplinary officer that a jurisdictional dispute between himself and the Discipline, Interpretation and Enforcement Board may have retorded the development of student responsibility on this compus—at least in the eyes of those persons engaged in rewriting the University Act.

DIE Board chairman Branny Schepanovich may have provoked this incredible state-ment by steadfastly insisting that his board has jurisdiction over all Students' Union members—whether they live in residence or not. His apponent in the bitter debate which began other on unforgetable fluor raid in the residence shree long manths ago is the university provest, A. A. Kyan,

Is the university provast, A. A. Ryan. Mr. Ryan, with backing from the Dean's Council and University President Dr. Walter H. Johns, has insisted the DE Board has no jurisdiction to hear a case involving resi-dence government and is oble to tite a long line of precedents to show how jurisdiction in residence officins likes with his own office and with the Board of Governors.

Both he and the university president have both he and the university president have decided the provost's constitutional position is "unquestionably correct" and that there is no grey area in the argument. Residence, they say, is a parish surrounded by the mainthey say, is a parish surrounded by stream of student life at this university

But Mr. Schepanovich has been able to present a strong case to show the Students'

Union does have authority to discipline any Union does have authority to discipline any of its members, and therefore has successfully shown there are at least two points of view to the question. He is arguing against the parochial view of residence.

Surely the debate on this question should Surely the debate on this question sindicentre around the arguments or philosophies and not upon the personalities involved. Instead of restricting the argument in this way, councillors sot quietly by Monday night listening to a disgraceful series of personal attacks made by the debate's two key figures.

artacks made by the debate s two key lightes.

Mr. Scheponivich has tried sincerely to clarify the hypocrisy involved in enforcement of residence liquor regulations and to make residence a better place in which to live, by suggesting the residence constitution be made available to all residence students. His board has noted a lamentable ignorance of residence rules on the part of persons living under them. ing under them.

But for some unexplainable reason, his argument has drawn a highly emotional and irrational response from the same man who has supported the cause of student responsibility on this campus for so many years.

on this compus for so many year.

Why has the provent decided to deal posterrolistically in personalities and not in issues, and why has a free debate on this issue resulted in possible changes in the overmunity—as the provest has so broadly hinted?

does sex exist?

by bruce ferrier

Confirmed male and female virgins in our culture usually dislike themselves immensely, knowing that they do not have the guts to live.

-Albert Ellis

St. Peter a long time ago wrote, "it is better to marry than to burn (with passion). Since then a lot of people have debated interminably on how long to burn, when, how often, etc., but it hasn't put out the fire.

A major problem for university students besides tests, overdue papers, acne, and par ents, is coping with the conflict between their bioemotional urges, ingrained moral obsessions, and the rules of society. Briefly, everyone wants to have sex, but is either too inhibited, too pure, or living in residence without access to an automobile.

What to do? The answer is provided in a book called SEX WITHOUT GUILT, by Albert Ellis, a man who has campaigned for many years for greater sex sanity.

The book may be obtained at the circulation desk of the Cameron Library. But, in case of emergency, here is a brief synopsis of Ellis's main points:

As has been previously noted by myself and others, sex is fun; heterosexual relations, in particular, are the very best fun; and more heterosexual relations are still more fun . . . Sex without love, moreover, is hardly a helmous retime, and appears to be quite delighterime, and appears to be quite delightlives of literally millions of individuals.

This basic concept, that sex is fun, he Inis basic concept, that sex is run, has been successfully suppressed for years by the Ann Landers school of morality: "The girl who stays home a lot has the right idea. When she does go out it will be with the right kind of fellows."

There is the "sex-is-sacred" approach about which Ellis has this to say:

our which Ellis has this to say:

No one . . would begin to teach a child homemaking tasks and responsibilities by beginning, "The home is a sacred place, and cooking and cleaning or be beautiful God-given occupations are considered to the constraint of the constr

Ellis goes on to compare current sex edu-cation to telling a child that checkers is a wonderful game, as long as you don't play it outside of marriage or with your brothers, sisters, other blood relations, persons of the same sex, and animals.

Ellis states:

The idea that the human male can easily sublimate his sex desires into other more "idealistic channels" is largely nonsense that is not supported by any factual evidence.

Here at the U of A we have the Dr. Ross Vant Method of Sexual Release. He recommends a few laps ground the track why perpetuate a dead thing?

modern marriage: a deteriorating situation

by john kelsey reprinted from the ubyssey

Western civilization is near the nadir, near collapse, riding the juggernaut to sta-nation and decadence and death. All will

It is historically correct to pin the start of the decline at A.D. 1921, the year of universal suffrage, the year women were given the vote. That was man's most crucial and excruciating error—he will burn for it, he is burning.

Since suffrage—and it is too late to do any revoking—mas sculture and the mass world has become entirely woman-ciented. Supply and demand is controlled by woman. The world is engulfed in sporadic wardare to preserve the American ideal, which rests heavily on momism's uply breast. Phillip Wylie defined the man syndrome most ac-curately in his Generation of Vipers. Since suffrage-and it is too late to do

That was 1940, but the situation has de-teriorated, not improved. Education is con-trolled by, and laced with the asinine frivoli-ties of inadequate women.

The home is woman's real place, but she is not suited to be head of it—although she now is. And even with the home completely controlled, she has the gall to enter business and industry on a por with men. On a par, that is, when she is on the attacking side. Attacked herself, her arterats behind the hymen of femininity, froilly but folsely. The juggernaut accelerates.

The entire problem is a direct result of two things: universal suffrage and marriage. Universal suffrage let women out of the kitchen, into shoes (and pants and wallets and cars) and over the world, rampant. Her meager brain cannot adequately cope with the world as it is, so she is forced to dena-ture, emasculate, the world.

Marriage as it is allows a women to cos-trate, both literally and figuratively, her man, She has him for life, and through some quirk in human make-up, is able to tolerate herself as an intolerable shrew. Man can-not tolerate her, but he's stuck, immersed in the mollosses of rabid monism. He ac-cepts his lot; his mother taught him well. He has no exceps—and she knows it.

Marriage is truly intolerable

Western man is buried in a seemingly hopless dilemma. He is weaned from birth to adulthood on the foolish idea that he must marry before he is fully grown or face life branded as an evil old lecher.

Society forces him to marry before he is physically, emotionally or financially ready; he's intimidated into marrying a nice girl whom he's never really met let alone come to know. Society scandalizes him if he dares Woman has forgotten her place, although it is one well-defined through history. Adam was supposed to dominate Eve. Christian marriage asks woman, always has, to love, honor and obey her man.

But the decay of our civilization is only seemingly hopeless. The answer is illegal co-habitation, variously called common law marriage or, in the vernacular, shacking up. Only then are both parties aware of the other's rights and responsibilities.

Only then can a shrew be tossed onto the Knowing this, the tongue never blackens, and the potential shrew remains a woman. And in the same case, an inadequate man will be tossed out but first—bedless, board-

But this isn't a life rife with insecurity. Mature people know they will not be tossed until they wish it or the other party wishes

It's the only insanity.

Where escape is easy, it cannot become a dominant theme for eternal frustration.

It is foolish to believe, two people can be ideally suited to goch other for their whole lives. People evolve, if they're olive at all, and people stagnate in their relations to each other—unto the point of no communication. Why perpetuate a dead thing?

The Gateway welcomes letters on topics of student interest. Correspondents are asked to be brief, otherwise their letter will be subject to abridgement. And correspondents, in replying to one another, should keep to the issues under discussion and abstain from personal ratacks. All letters to the aditor must bear the name of the writer. No peutodoryms will be published.

making the scene: part one

This is actually an article about an article that didn't get written. We were sitting around meditating on the sins of omission and commission that have made the Arts Page so inimitable; and it occurred to us that one of the things we should be doing is analyzing some of the emptier corners of the Edmonton cultural

There are, of course, varieties of emptiness. of emptiness.

There are the things that just aren't being done. Classical music outside the standard repetrory (especially 18th and 20th century works). Contemporary European drama (which is a shame because nearly all the best shame because nearly all the best drama of our century has been European). Classical drama of any description. Exciting private gallery-management. Et cetera, et cetera. Then there are the things that

QUEENS & TEENS BEAUTY SALON Phone 439-1990

for latest stylings, body perms, perms, frosting and tipping ½ block South of University Hospital in Concord Towers Open Mon. - Sat. Thurs. and Fri. till 9 p.m.

PREMIERE ENGAGEMENT TWO DAYS ONLY - FEB. 2 & 3

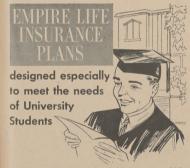

WITH TWO PERFORMANCES EACH DAY

EVENINGS 8:30 P.M. $2.00 - MATINEES 2 P.M. $1.50 AN ACTUAL PERFORMANCE OF THE NATIONAL THEATRE

ODEON

TICKETS NOW ON SALE

As a University man, you already know the value of Life Insurance. You probably plan to buy some "later on". Empire Life makes it possible for you to buy it now-by offering you unique plans designed to meet the needs of University Students—at prices you can afford to pay.

Plan now to enjoy a guaranteed financial future. Let an Empire Life representative tell you about these new plans for University Students—which include guaranteed insurability up to age 40, regardless of your state of health.

get done but aren't worth doing, that carry emptiness inside of get done but aren't worth doing, that carry emptiness inside of them. "John Brown's Body", a bad poem not old enough to be funny. The Edmonton Sym-phony's coming "Hommage à la France" program, which might phony's coming "Hommage à la France" program, which might better be called "Hackneyed French Favorites". The agoniz-ingly predictable offerings of the Edmonton Professional Opera As-

So we thought of running an arts-calendar fantasy, with listings for all the things that we'd like to see done. "The Three-penny Opera". "Boris Gudonoy". Some Gluck. Lots of Yeats. "Man and Superman". A Handel fective!

(Don't be worried if you don't like this list, or haven't heard of

HONDA SALES & RENTALS

8602 - 99 Street Phone 439-4407 nouncement yourself; casting the 'Ring' with Edmonton singers is great sport, in which we would further indulge but for the laws of libel.)'"

Gluck, by the way. The whole point of drawing up lists is that they should please some people very much, not a lot of people a little. Dream your own dreams, and pressure everybody in sight to realize them.)

But then it occured to us (reasonable people that we are) that what stands in the way of a lot of these fabulous projects is their sheer impracticality.

their sheer impracticality.

Indeed, we imagined how one of the items might run:

"The Edmonton Professional "The Edmonton Professional in the professional their strength of the professional their strength of the production, and one send in Con Ital.

"Ring" this spring. Performances will be held (for greater intimacy and less rent) in Con Ital. It is production, and one which will certainly be of interest on which content in the international musical scene, is wranged in the production of the international musical scene, is a content of the production of the production of the professional through the professional Mr. Priestman's decision to adapt Wagner's normally-gargantuan orchestral score for his well-drilled chamber ensemble . . .' 'Fill in the rest of this an-

-J. O. T./W. R. B.

of libel.)"

And we could have carried on, imagining Edmonton productions of plays stylistically out of the range of our local talent—Shaw, Giraudoux, Shakespeare, Strindtheatre people: we'd love to be proven wrong).

But at this point we got cold feet. We imagined all the letters

We imagined all the letters we'd get from people who would solemnly assure us that Mr. Priestman would rather die than tamper with Wagner's scoring; not to mention those myriad not to mention those myriad hardworking cogs in the Edmon-ton cultural machine whose sens-ibilities would be injured at the least hint of lack of appreciation for their efforts.

for their efforts.

The fact is that the Edmonton Cultural Scene is by and large geared to rather good mediocrity, and that the laws of inertia are very powerfully at work within

The EDMONTON SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD

requires

QUALIFIED Catholic teachers at all grade levels from 1 to 12 including vocational education, commercial and academic subjects. Elementary teachers particularly required.

DUTIES to commence September 1st, 1966.

PRESENT SALARY range from $3,100 to $9,550 dependent upon training and experience. Now under negotiation-improvement anticipated.

"MEET YOUR MATCH" At The Monte Carlo Dance co-sponsored by N.A.I.T. IBM 1620 and Commerce Undergraduate Society

structions:—
(a) Check one space only in each category for "I AM" and "I LIKE".
(b) Cut out questionnaire and deposit in box in SUB. Lobby before
(c) Check into "Match Deek" at Monte Canlo Saturday night January 22 to receive your notification of matched partner.
(d) There is no commitment on the part of either party to his or her matched partner.

(e) Married, Pinned of Engaged individuals are invited to participate.

Male Female		I.D. Number
	I Am	I Like		I Am	I Lik
Age			Marital Status
	1		Single
	2		Engaged
	3		Divorced
	4		Married
	5
29-plus	€		Hair Color
College Class			Brown	and the latest to
Freshman			Black		2
	2		Blond		3
Junior	2		Red
Senior	4		Any
Graduate	5
			School Major
Height 5'1-5'2			Graduate	1
			Engineering
			Business
	4			stronger :
			Arts and Science
			Education
			Med. and Dent
	8		Agriculture
	9		Nurses
o s-pius			Law
Religion			Any		2
			Weight
			Under 110
	4		110-120		2
			120-130		3
Any	6		130-140	Ammonto !	£
Interest and Skills			140-150		5
			150-160		5
			160-170
			170-180		3
			180-plus	vonen !	3
			-
			Greek
			Independent		2
			Either		3
Any	3	*	Edulet		9

previewing a man for all seasons

It is perhaps unfortunate that McCreath's production of Robert Bolt's "A Man For All Seasons" will be with us for only three days (Jan. 19-21). The whole effort, from cast to costumes, is enough to make ten Citadel Family Compacts sit up and take Perhaps these words are bold Pernaps these words are bold, being based on the experience of witnessing only one rehearsal, but I have every confidence that the play will bear me out. Walter Kaasa in the lead role of Thomas the play will bear me out. Waitee Kaasai in the deed role of Thomas top condition, and Wes Stephan along with John Madill are right up there with him.

The sets designed by Phil Silvers, a man who obviously knows what he is doing, are no ing, but I'm led to believe that the costumes may outdo both. The play itself deals with Saint (or Sir, depending where you stand) Thomas More and his relationship with the young together the set of the do about Catherine, his barren Queen. In other words, the play is an oh-so-subtly comic hanging-out of England's dirty laundry. But it is far from only that. It has its tender moments, such as when More literally gets the axe and its strange moments, usually provided by a kind of metaprovided by a kind of meta-physical anomaly, inanity, and inconsistency in the person of the Common Man, who is also the Boatman, and More's servant (a kind of Bobby Hull of the stage -a golden boy of a thousand uses).

I am tempted to call the play a tragic farce, except that I don't think Robert Bolt would deserve think Robert Bolt would deserve it, since he makes no claim to being a Christian, and only Christians can lower their lips on one side and raise them on the other.

But rather than label it, or pick it apart (as the director was doing, only in another way, when I attended the rehearsal), I intend

I attended the renearsal), I intend to see it.

The play, by the way, is going on at the Jubilee Auditorium (that wonderful marble cover-up for our brick mentality), and will move on to Red Deer Jan. 29, and early in February will assault Calgary.

-Peter Montgomery

Nayheewuk hits campus at month end

U of A will be the scene of Nayheeawuk or Canadian Native Week Jan. 31-Feb. 5. The week will be an extension of the Canadian Native Seminar to be held Jan. 28-39. Approxi-mately 40 delegates from Western

BAYDALA DRUG

(Parkade) Corner 103 St. and Jasper Ave. OPEN UNTIL MIDNIGHT 7 DAYS A WEEK

Canadian universities are expected to attend the seminar which will be a concentrated study of the Native problems in Canada.

Canadian Native Week will be an attempt to inform students and citizens of the present situation of the native people of the province and of Canada as a whole.

The weeks program includes:

informal coffee parties hosted by fraternities and other campus groups displays of native art and culture on campus

panels and discussions groups

ofilm. "The Exiles"

Topics to be discussed are Indian affairs, native organizations, com-munity development, education and munity development, education and laws, courts and discrimination. Prominent speakers on some of the panels will be Phil Thompson, Chief of National Indian Council and William Wuttunee, an Indian and whilam relatives.

Lawyer.
If student reaction to Canadian Native Week is favorable, further seminars and lectures will be held to continue discussion of the Indian problem and to suggest possible

Scholars sought for CUS student exchange

The interregional scholarship ex-change plan of the Canadian Union of Students will operate again this of students was operated by the provides travel grants and free tuition to selected undergraduates to allow them to take a year of studies at another Canadian university.

Students with a second class standing and at least two more years of university study are eligible to apply.

Participating universities are divided into five regions for pur-poses of the exchange. Successful candidates will attend a university in a distant region.

U of A has four exchange scholars attending other univer-sities under the CUS plan. They Russell Schnell at Memorial University, Newfoundland

• Eleanor Glor at Carleton University, Ottawa

Marion Raycheba at Dalhousie University, Halifax

Barbara Krause at Laval University, Montreal

Exchange scholars from other universities who are now studying at U of A are: Mary Ann Alex-ander, Robert MacDonald, Law-rence Hignell and Linda Brydon. Interested students can obtain application forms at the Students Awards Office in the administration building.

CUS chairman Bruce Olsen will provide further information to in-terested students.

VCF lecturer will clarify

Deadline is Jan. 22.

Christianity Varsity Christian Fellowship's lecture series "Why Believe" will be an attempt to clarify basic Christianity for the student.

Dr. D. A. Hubbard, a prominent Old Testament and Semitic scholar will give five lectures, each one relating some aspect of Christ's life to our own.

Lectures will be given each da at 5 p.m. in Con Hall, Jan. 24-28. The first lecture, His Manger and Your Quadrangle, will deal with Christ's birth and man's foursided existance.

Tuesday's lecture, His Carpenter Shop and Your Career, will be a study of Christ's career and how it relates to a person's choice of Christ's crucifixion will be re-lated to purposes in life in Dr. Hubbard's third lecture entitled "His Cross and Your Purpose."

Christ's death and its effect on the destiny of mankind will be examined in the lecture "His Tomb and Your Destiny", Thursday. The final lecture is called "His Coming and Your View of History."

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Applications for the position of education representative to students' council will be received until 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Applications should be addressed to the Secretary, Education Under-graduate Students' Society Office ed bldg.

Applicants need not be EUS members.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

Students who have suggestions for alleviating the parking prob-lems on campus are invited to sub-mit them to Al W. Anderson, student representative to the park-ing sub-committee, care of the students' union office.

Dr. James E. Tchir

401 Tegler Building Telephone 422-2856

nel Conacher (Honors Bus. Admin.

Lionel K. Conacher* counsels '66 grads:

"Why I chose a marketing career with London Life"

"In my field of work, there is unlimited scope for graduates who seek freedom to decide their own future along with an opportunity to develop their own potential

"London Life gives you three major assists in establishing your career in marketing:

"First, a solid three months of specialized training at the head office, with emphasis on marketing among executives and professional men, in business insurance, estate planning, taxation and group insurance. And this is only the beginning of your training. "Second, an attractive starting salary that helps you become established. Also, there are plenty of opportunities for graduates to move into key marketing management areas.

"Finally, you are backed by the company with more insurance in force on the lives of Canadians than any other. A company whose annual sales are unexcelled in the Canadian market.

London Life requires graduates with bachelors or masters degrees in commerce, arts, and business administration, to develop the fast-growing market of life insurance throughout Canada.

Successful candidates will enter the marketing branch for specialized training in group sales and ordinary life sales to professional people and businessmen. Beginning with three months of initial training at its head office in London, Ontario, the company's 18-month training and development program for university graduates continues under expert supervision in your home area (or another location of your choice), with continued short courses in London

An attractive salary is provided during the training period and can be supplemented by sales commission. In addition, you enjoy individual freedom to develop your own skills, knowledge and income at the pace you choose to set. There are no limitations to opportunities in life insurance marketing.

A London Life representative will be interviewing at your college placement office on the date below If you are interested in learning more about a marketing career with London Life, arrange for an appointment through your placement officer.

*At the University of Western Ontario, Lionel Conacher was well known as a fullback on the champion University Mustangs of 1957 and 1959. He was graduated in 1960, joined London Life, and became a group insurance supervisor in Montreal. In 1963 he transferred to the company's Ordinary Branch in Toronto, where he has successfully established a business clientele.

A REPRESENTATIVE WILL BE INTERVIEWING AT THIS CAMPUS ON JANUARY 21

London Life Insurance Company

Head Office: London, Canada